On April 14, 2024, Pope Francis declared May 24th—25th World Children's Day and invited all children to share their "... joy and wish for a better world, a world at peace." He invited all of us to pray for the children who suffer because of wars. Together with the Most Blessed Virgin Mary and Saint Joseph, let us pray in these words, as invited by the Holy Father:

*Come, Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in the faces of children all over the world.
Come, Jesus, you who make all things new, who are the way that leads us to the Father, come and remain with us always. Amen.*

CANTATE SUNDAY is the name given to the fourth Sunday after Easter, i.e the fifth Sunday of Easter, and is similar to the names Gaudete and Laetare Sundays, assigned to the third Sunday of Advent and the fourth of Lent. These names date back as far as the twelfth century. Cantate Sunday gets its name from the first word of the Introit at Mass on that day - "Cantate Domino novum canticum", Sing ye to the Lord a new song. Let us indeed sing a new song unto the Lord as we continue to celebrate His resurrection this Easter season.

Cantate Domino. Psalm 98

O sing unto the Lord a new song, alleluia: for the Lord hath done marvelous things, alleluia: in the sight of the nations hath he shewed his righteous judgments, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. With his own right hand, and with his holy arm: hath he gotten himself the victory. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. O sing unto the Lord . . .

From: Fr. Steve

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Last week, we took a look at Pope Francis's Introduction to his Cycle of Catechesis on Vices and Virtues. This week, let's look at his next catechesis on the spiritual striving. Here is a summary of what our Holy Father said: In our catechesis on the virtues and the vices opposed to them, we have seen that the Christian life involves a constant struggle to resist sin and to grow in holiness. Jesus, himself sinless, submitted to baptism by John and was tempted in the desert, in order to teach us the need for spiritual rebirth, conversion of mind and heart, and unfailing trust in God's mercy and sustaining grace. May our weekly reflections on the virtues and vices help us to imitate the Lord's example, to grow in wisdom and self-understanding, and to discern between good and evil. As we advance in the knowledge and practice of the virtues, may we come to experience the joy of closeness to God, the source of all good, authentic happiness and the fullness of eternal life.

For Reflection/Prayer:

In this catechesis, the Holy Father mentions that, "Saints are not men and women who have been spared temptation, but people . . . well aware of the fact that in life, the seductions of evil appear repeatedly, to be unmasked and rejected." Are there any saints whose struggle with, and victory over temptation, are an inspiration to me? Pope Francis says examination of conscience is good for us, because "otherwise, we run the risk of living in the dark, because we have become accustomed to darkness and no longer know how to distinguish good from evil." If we think ourselves to be 'alright', 'just fine', or 'without problems' he tells us we are dreaming. Am I honest with myself about my conscience? Am I dreaming, or living in the dark? What should I do about it?

"Lord, do not turn away from me," is a prayer our Holy Father calls beautiful for each of us each day/today. Do I really believe that Jesus understands and accompanies me at my side, even in my worst moments and when I need to be lifted up from my sins? Reflecting upon vices and virtues helps us to navigate the opposite extremes in a "culture in which the boundaries between good and evil become blurred." "The spiritual struggle, then, leads us to look closely at those vices that shackle us and to walk, with the grace of God, towards those virtues that can flourish in us, bringing the springtime of the Spirit into our lives," writes the Pope.
